7. Reports –

a. President - Tracy shared that she is excited for the coming year and the raffle for fund raising. Great to have more people involved.

b. Zones - LM - Tamara reported the Icebreaker was smaller with fewer quarter horses. They manned the Booth at Horse Mania and had a lot of interest from visitors and excitement from the folks manning the booth.

SC - Tracy reported that they had three all breed open shows and clinics in 2024. They will be repeated in 2025 and will be used to claim the CQHA grant to be shared with all the zones. Fuzzy May 17/18; Ogopogo July 5/6 and Wine Country Aug 23/24.

VI - Roseanne reported that some small clinics are being organized and hoping to get them involved in the July 5/6 AQHA Show

CQHA/AQHA - Pia reported that currently there is not an AQHA BC Director. CQHA had an AGM. The Board and President remain very much the same as last year

c. Membership has been taken over by Amberlee Ficcocello. A reminder was given to everyone that a person can only be sponsored for one year and then they must purchase a membership if they wish to continue with BCQHA. Members may sponsor a new member who has not been a BCQHA member for over ten years every time they renew their membership.

8. New Business

a. A new website is being built and will be available as soon as it is ready to go. Send ideas and photos to Tracy or Amberlee. Direct deposit will be available by the end of the week. Please put a note on the e-transfer.

b. The question was raised about an AQHA show in Northern BC and Tracy explained that we are trying to get in touch with them.

c. Pia reviewed the plans to hold a Class B raffle for the association that will be distributed between the three zone and BCQHA.
